

Firefox Settings to View / Print Estimates

Go to the top right corner of the Firefox browser and click on the icon that is 3 lines. When the menu opens click on Options.

Scroll down to the Applications section. Depending on your system you may only have the Portable Document Format (PDF) as seen in example 1 OR you may have the Portable Document Format (PDF) and multiple *Adobe Types as seen in example 2.

Example

In order to view or print your estimate ALL of these types need to have the Action column to have "Use Adobe Acrobat Reader DC" selected.

If the Action column says "Preview in Firefox" click directly on the words "Preview in Firefox" and a menu will appear and you will need to select "Use Adobe Acrobat DC"

If you DO NOT have Adobe DC as an option to then please visit the "Support" tab in the Pro-Estimator system to download the program.

You will have to select Adobe on ALL of the “Adobe Acrobats” and the “Portable Document Format (PDF)” once this is done, you can exit out of the settings and you are all set.
